Pretty Oregon Wedding Celebrated

Oregon-One of the prettiest of the summer weddings occurred on Sat-urday, July 18, at the Presbyterian church at 4 o'clock, Rev. R. E. Chandler officiating, when Elizabeth Robnson, the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson was united in marriage to Dwight Mackey, the only son of Mrs. Sadie Mackey.

Preceding the ceremony there was musical program during which Mrs. Adams of Marengo, an aunt of the bride, sang two solos, "Oh Sweet Mystery of Life," and "Oh Promise Me." Mrs. Adams was accompanied Fruit Salad and Ambrosia Dressing by Grover Stroh, organist, and Iced Coffee Franklin Lundstrom, violinst.

The bride wore a gown of white embroidered organdy and a tulle veil with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white roses. Miss Robinson's sister, Miss Olive Robinson, who was maid of honor and her only attendant, wore a gown of blue ruffled net over pink taffeta. A large pink hat Blend sugar, flour and salt, add and pink moire slippers completed

Mr. Mackey was attended by Bert stantly. Beat well. Cood, add cream. Gale as best man. The ushers were Henry Hefty, Jake Nordman, James Murdock and Don Brooke. Following the ceremony at the church, a reception to about one hundred relatives and friends was held at the Robinson home, Mr. and Mrs. Mackey will make their home in Oregon after a ten days' trip to eastern points. Hosts of friends join in extending best wishes to the young couple.

done. A suit-a black suit, for instance, may be made to look like a dress-and-jacket outfit, by using the fob arrangement to unite blouse and skirt in design. The fob is equipped with two clips one at the top, which clamps onto the blouse neckline, and one at the base, which holds up the point at the centerfront of the skirt's waistline. One black skirt may be thus combined with any number of blouses, always giving the dress effect. The jewels are neutral in color, combining clear crystal, cloudy crystal and moonstones, so that the fob may be worn with an outfit of any color, without being a jarring note. The tiny watch-face and works top

The re-conditioning of the old frigate and her present voyage along the Atlantic coast stir abundant memories. Even if not more than 15 per cent of the original ship remains in existence, the Constitution is a magnificent object lesson of the way the old New England ship-builders were able to combine beauty and utility in one vessel.

The debt that the nation as a whole owes to those old it said in part: craftsmen and designers is not sufficiently appreciated. A NEW CAMPAIGN NEEDED.

Once again it has become apparent that the people of the United States are not able to celebrate a national holiday without killing themselves by the score. As the din of the Fourth of July noise-makers dies down it is revealed that 354 Americans lost their lives during the holiday.

Oddly enough, only eight were killed by fireworks. Years of campaigning for a "safe and sane Fourth" seem to have had their effect. Dangerous explosives are not used as much as formerly, and those that are used are handled with more

But what is the net gain, when motor traffic and the bathing beaches take enough of a toll to wipe out all of the savings? We seem to have learned how to handle firecrackers only to discover that we do not yet know how to handle automobiles. Growing more careful in one field, we have also grown more careless in another.

Evidently the "safe and sane" campaigns need to be broadened and extended very considerably.

A HAZARD OF THE GAME.

According to the Pennsylvania superior court, being hit by a golf ball is just one of the hazards of the game, and a player who is injured that way cannot collect damages from the driver of the ball that hit him.

This dictum came when the court refused to permit a litigant to win the damages he sought from another player in Philadelphia.

Most golfers probably will agree that it is sound common sense. A flying golf ball can be a dangerous missile; yet, after all, the uncertainties of the game are such that the driver can hardly be held responsible. Golf balls do erratic things sometimes. Even a skillful player can cut loose with a wild hook or slice unexpectedly. The duffer, in the nature of things, does it all the time. It would seem to be up to each player to look out for himself.

LIANE BARRETT, 18 and beautiful, feels what she believes is love at first sight for VAN ROBARD, fascinating man of the world. At Willow Stream, L. I., where she goes with her mother, CASS, an actress playing stock at a summer theater, she meets him again. Without explaining, Cass nake Liane to have nothing more to do with him. Liane hears from ELSIE MINTER, the ingenue, that there is gossip about Van and Mrs. Ladd. MURIEL LADD, a pretty debutante, professes to be pretty debutante, professes to be in love with CHUCK DESMOND, newspaper reporter, but plays around with other men.

when Cass goes on tour in the fail Liane stays with the rich MRS CLEESPAUGH. Cass becomes seriously ill la Philadelphia and Liane rushes to her. In her delirium, the woman babbles of some mystery concerning Liane's birth. The engagement of Van Robard and Muriel is announced. When CLEVE CLEESPAUGH asks Liane to marry him—a marriage of convenience—the accepts. Her mother returns to the Cleespaughs to convalence.

Does Your Automobile Insurance Policy Say What You Think It Does?

If your car should be burned or stolen, will your insurance company pay you the amount stated in the policy? The amount named in the policy is a valuation used to determine the cost of the insurance, the rate for fire and theft insurance being a certain price per hundred dollars of valuation.

The policy says that in the event of a total loss you will receive an amount not to exceed the actual loss sustained, the settlement to be agreed upon by you and the adjuster for the insurance company. This is the policy known as the "non valued" form.

Then there is the "valued form" policy. Under the terms of this policy you are paid the face value of the policy, the amount on which you have paid premium. The Inter-Insurance Exchange of the Chicago Motor Club issues a VALUED FORM POLICY, which covers you anywhere in the United States or Canada. Other services of the club are: Free mechanical first aid and towing service, home district service, accident prevention work, travel service, and bail bond service.
